Clive's Ramblings

Mouldy's computer went bung but he was fortunate enough to find pen and paper and a stamp to send me news of Jazz among the arts - Celebrating 20years of this annual Jazz event - Good effort I say. Well worth going Sat 3rd November. Ring mouldy - don't email (computer still on the blink) 5664 7378 to book. Panic would set in if I had no computer. How would I get songs to play on my jazz show without rushing out to JB 's and spending a fortune - How would I Change the keys on the sheet music ? Without youtube I would miss out on all those great jazz clips of bands and musos long gone. Without google how would I find out who wrote it or played it. I send music and jokes to friends all over the world and receive same from others,without stamps and a trip to the post office, and as a radio presenter get annoyed when people say your station is out of range. I mean for goodness sake people get Australian Idol on their phones these days !! So how come the station fades when there is a strong wind ? Has radio had it ? Technology has changed !! We used to be able to record our favourite shows or songs that were on the radio - but the cassette players are few and far between and recording direct to CD is still too expensive. My collection of jazz songs 35,000 of them fits in a box 7" x 7" X 1.5" and I can take it with me and play them on anyone's computer. The Vinyl Records are out in the shed and may be used to make nostalgic flower pots when I get the time. The cassette tapes are being used to tie up the tomato plants. Mouldy I really hope your computer gets fixed soon as I can't imagine life without a computer. For those who have lived their lives without a computer and don't see the need for one - you probably would still happy with black and white TV and your old HMV 78 player crackle crackle click hiss - Woof :)

Anyone wishing to help out and become a radio presenter at 3mfm particularly during the day give me a ring or email or even find one of those pen things and write. Clive 5678 8041

Bits and Pieces

FROM THE TOP

A bloke outside Harcourts Real Estate in Inverloch said that he knows a bloke who has a cousin who has a sister who shops at the same IGA supermarket as Gary Ablett's neighbour, and she said that the Geelong players, before the Grand Final, listened to the Patsy O'Neill C.D. ('Blame it on My Youth') to prime themselves for the big game. The twenty goal thrashing that Geelong subsequently dished out to their hapless opponents speaks for itself.

The South Gippsland Jazz Society will be going one better than this, on October 20th, by presenting "Patsy O'Neill and Friends" LIVE at the Inverloch RSL. Her band will feature Neil Taylor (Geelong man) on piano, Graeme Steel (Essendon tragic) on trumpet, David May (Charlton Athletic tragic) on drums and Trevor Firth on reeds. Bass player TBA, possibly Geoff Wood, who comes from Geelong, and therefore deserves the gig.

Some smart money says that some of the Geelong supporters in the jazz club will have sobered up a bit by then.

Cheers Ross

VICE MATTERS

September's club night saw a very small but enthusiastic audience show their appreciation of a very slick trad band (R & R) as they gave some brilliant versions of good foot stomping and easy listening jazz, some of the solos were just superb.

Congratulations to the boys for their enthusiastic performance, it was the night that trad lovers should not have missed. Also a special thanks to the anonymous person who mailed a lost wallet back to our member who lost it on the night, He is extremely grateful for it's return. I can't wait for this month as one of my favourite vocalists will be coming to sing for us, and the backing musicians in the band are not half bad either.

Make sure that you definitely do not miss this coming attraction at the club night.

The footy is finished and we need your support to continue to bring high quality performers to our society nights, so please make an effort to attend our club nights and try and bring some friends or neighbors to make up some good attendances.

Club Night Review

Band R&R

Personnel:

Piano - Ian Richardson Bass Neville Drummond Drums Ron Black
Trumpet Ray Oliphant Saxophone John Eddy Trombone Don Santin

Magnificent band. Wonderful variety of instruments and excellent vocals.

Wide variety of jazz standards. Has great appeal. Made to feel very welcome.

For my money I expect the trombonist to use both hands!

Great soprano sax. Entertaining 'penny whistle'.

Entertaining and most enjoyable.

There is nothing like live music and this is it tonight.

Live entertainment. The band is fantastic. Come back again 'please more.'

Great band. Should be on more often. Trad... Trad....

Fantastic music. Great individual musicians. Piano "Great", Saxophone "Great", Trombone "Great", Bass "Great", Drums "Great", Love the Penny Whistle and Trumpet. Great Night.

A very good variety of numbers throughout the night (well done!)

Great band- more often.

Great night good Trad!

Loved the tin whistles -great night.

Enjoyed Ray's singing, especially Sweet Sue and the trumpet. Great little band all blended in beautifully.
Love the Trad Jazz. John Stewart

Fantastic. Best I have heard at the club for a long time. Ian McFee

First time tonight. Great bunch of people and a great band. Very enjoyable. Bob Ayres

A good night of music, if you weren't here it was your loss. Noel

Great band, good entertainment. Very cheap night and worth more. John
